

Cullen and Dykman LLP Announces the Promotion of Adam Del Vecchio to Partner

November 21, 2023

New York, NY – Cullen and Dykman LLP, one of New York State’s oldest law firms, is pleased to announce the promotion of Adam Del Vecchio to the position of partner in the firm’s esteemed Construction Litigation practice group.

With an impressive background and extensive experience in civil litigation, Adam has consistently demonstrated his dedication and proficiency in representing construction contractors, general contractors, subcontractors, building owners, and developers. His expertise spans a wide range of complex legal matters, including high-exposure construction accidents and defects, contractual and common law risk transfer, and insurance coverage disputes.

“As Adam Del Vecchio ascends to the role of partner, it’s a celebration of his outstanding legal prowess and commitment to excellence. His promotion is not just a step up in title but a recognition of his impactful contributions to the firm,” stated Christopher H. Palmer, Managing Partner at Cullen and Dykman.

Adam Del Vecchio added, “I am honored and excited for this recognition and to continue my development with a firm so rich in history yet on the cutting edge in both practice and client service. I am deeply grateful and humbled to be taking this next step with the support of Cullen and Dykman and our Construction Litigation practice group.”

Adam earned his J.D. from the Maurice A. Deane School of Law at Hofstra University and his B.A. from East Stroudsburg University. He is admitted to practice in New York.
