
Energy and Utilities

Our Tax attorneys support Cullen and Dykman's Energy, Renewables and Utilities group by providing advice to sponsors of, and investors in, renewable energy projects, including tax equity investors. We advise on all tax aspects of renewable energy transactions, including transaction structuring, solar tax equity financings, real property tax considerations including the availability of real property tax exemptions and abatement programs and maximizing renewable energy tax credits available with respect thereto.

To learn more about our Energy, Renewables and Utilities Practice: Click Here