

Proud Featured Sponsor of the 2020 Virtual Conference of the National Association of College and University Attorneys (NACUA)

June 16, 2020

Cullen and Dykman is proud to be a featured sponsor of the 2020 Virtual Conference of the National Association of College and University Attorneys (NACUA), which will take place virtually from June 18 to 26. NACUA's 2020 Virtual Conference focuses on recent issues and legal developments in higher education law. The virtual event includes 16 Live Interactive Sessions as well as 15 Moderated Discussion Groups. Topics that will be discussed include higher education during the COVID-19 pandemic, crisis management, labor and employment, religious and church-affiliated colleges and universities, sexual misconduct and the new Title IX regulations, diversity, equity and inclusion issues on campus, student mental health, and website accessibility. The conference provides higher education attorneys with the opportunity to share insights and knowledge with colleagues from across the country.

Cullen and Dykman's higher education practice group is a multidisciplinary team committed to helping colleges and universities navigate the ever-changing higher education landscape. Our attorneys have expertise in various areas affecting academic institutions, including but not limited to regulatory compliance, labor and employment, governance, corporate transactions, bond financing, tax, intellectual property, real estate, construction, environmental, data privacy and cybersecurity, internal investigations, advising distressed institutions, and litigation.
